

Postcard from C.A.B. to Mabel Hubbard Bell, December 6, 1884, with transcript

L Copy of a Postal Card sent to Mrs. Mabel G. Bell from C. A. B. (Bartel?) 6 Dec. 1884.

I omitted to say that lately in a sermon I told my people that the inventor of the telephone had expressed to me more concern for his lecture on deaf-mutes than on that on applications of electricity. That pleased me much.
